

Unlocking the Bible in Urban Communities

Unlocking real life stories of urban people
Revealing Good News of the Down to Earth Christ
Releasing life changing skills and confidence

This is an opportunity open to anyone at Queen's and in the Birmingham area who may be interested in learning more about Unlock's approach to the Bible, giving both clergy and laity insights and practical, hands on experience in applying this approach to Bible engagement with small groups of oral learners in their local area.

Dawn Lonsdale
(Unlock Chief Officer)
will lead an Unlock Training event
10.00am until 3.30pm
On December 13th 2022
at The Queen's Foundation
Somerset Road, Edgbaston,
Birmingham, B15 2QH

You can book lunch at Queens or bring your own. Please include your intentions when you book. Last date for booking lunches is December 1st.

Our life experience matters; our stories; our joys and sorrows. The Bible has plenty to say - more than we'll ever know - about our lives if we know how to read it and apply it, to 'Unlock' it. For many people, especially those in urban situations, hearing about Unlock's approach brings a eureka moment as they discover a way forward with a fringe group that doesn't relate to traditional Bible studies or formal church meetings.
